

Now Enrolling for the Class of 2011

The Cygnet Society of Tulsa Ballet is an educational outreach program specifically created for eighth grade girls. The mission of the Cygnet Society is: to provide exclusive educational and social opportunities for eighth grade girls, encourage leadership and community service, and allow an insider's view of a world-class ballet company.

The annual membership fee for The Cygnet Society is $1,600, which can be paid in 3 installments. This fee covers ballet tickets, presentation attire, fun parties, events, workshops and more. Register before June 1, 2010 and receive a $100 discount off the membership price, plus 2 tickets for the price of one to the 2010 Cygnet Presentation and performance of Carmina Burana on Sunday, May 23.

Benefits for Cygnets:

- Tickets to 3 Tulsa Ballet productions at the Tulsa Performing Arts Center
- Formal presentation of the Cygnet Society on stage at the PAC before the opening curtain at the March performance
- Gala reception for Cygnets and their families following the presentation on stage
- Presentation gown from Saks Fifth Avenue
- Hands-on educational workshops and activities, including stage make-up, music, movement, costumes, hip-hop dancing, leadership training and service-oriented volunteer projects
- Cygnet T-shirt
- Mother/Daughter party
- Father/Daughter party
- Sitting fee and one 5x7 framed portrait by a professional photographer
- Portrait in Tulsa People Magazine
- Sterling silver "Cygnet" jewelry
- A privileged insider's view of a world-class ballet company
- Other fun surprises!

Benefits for Parents:

- Invitation to a Founders Society preview and dinner
- Invitation to the exclusive world premiere event for the Creations Series
- Networking opportunities with other parents
- 2 Tickets for the Presentation Ballet and Gala